Bluegrass Sundays Presents

Sunday, February 19
2:00 pm

Remington Ryde

Emerging as one of the hottest bluegrass bands from Central Pennsylvania is Remington Ryde. The band was formed in November of 2002 with the sole purpose of promoting bluegrass music throughout the state. They continue to grow in popularity, winning over crowds throughout the country. They have released four full length albums and one single, "I'll Wait for You," that has been played by bluegrass radio stations throughout the country including Sirius Bluegrass.

They are loved by festival-goers and bluegrass fans from all over the country. The band is exploding into the national scene.

Sunday, March 18
2:00 pm

Grasstowne

Alan Bibey and Steve Gulley have known and admired each other for over 25 years in their endeavors with bands such as The New Quicksilver, Illrd Tyme Out, Doyle Lawson & Quicksilver, BlueRidge and Mountain Heart. Add to the band's mix three young and very talented players: Adam Haynes on fiddle and vocals, Justin Jenkins on banjo and vocals and Kameron Keller on upright bass and you have one of the hottest and energetic bands touring today! The band's first two projects "The Road Headin' Home" and "The Other Side of Towne" went to #1 and #2 respectively on the National Bluegrass Charts. The Road Headin' home remained at #1 for three months and also won the 2008 "Album of the Year" award.

Sunday, April 22
2:00 pm

Notkin' Fancy

Nothin' Fancy was formed as a bluegrass band in 1994 to compete in the East Coast Bluegrass Championship in Crimora, Virginia. After winning their auspicious debut, they have grown in popularity, released 8 full length albums and one CD single, played the Ryman Auditorium in Nashville, the Lincoln Center in New York City, and the Birchmere in Alexandria, Virginia. Their relentless touring schedule of over 140 dates per year has earned them one of the most loyal fan bases in all of bluegrass music. Their strong vocals, powerful instrumentation, and energetic stage presence, along with their friendly down-to-earth charm keeps people coming back for more. Nothin' Fancy is not just carrying on the tradition of bluegrass music; they are contributing to the creation of a new tradition within the acoustic music genre.
